Re: Lower Darby Creek Area Superfund Site

Dear Ms. Prisk:

In Sunoco, Inc. (R&M)'s (Sunoco) November 16, 2001 responses to the USEPA's CERCLA Section 104e letter, I indicated that Sunoco would continue to search its archived files and supplement its responses if it found additional documents relevant to the EPA's questions.

After an extensive review of its files, Sunoco has found no information linking it to the Clearview Landfill, Folcroft Landfill and/or the Folcroft Landfill Annex.

Sunoco has discovered additional contracts regarding Sun Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co.'s (Sun Ship) use of three companies involved in waste disposal in the 1970's. These companies are: Pitcco/Prickett Industrial Tank Cleaning of Deptford, New Jersey; Environmental Services Company of Passaic, New Jersey; and Gaess Industrial Service of Passaic, New Jersey. Waste transported by the latter two companies was taken to the Kin Buc Landfill. In addition, we discovered copies of "pick up tickets" from Continental Vanguard, showing waste was taken from the Sunoco Marcus Hook Refinery in 1976 to either the Bridgeport Landfill, a/k/a BROS, and the Knickerbocker Landfill. This information was found in historic litigation files.

Because of the volume of the documents, and the lack of a nexus to the Lower Darby Creek Area Superfund Site, I have not enclosed copies of these documents. If EPA wishes copies, please contact me.

Sincerely,
